this volume covers the last century interpreted broadly of the traditional western middle ages often seen as a time of doubt decline and division the period is shown here as a period of considerable innovation and development much of which resulted from a conscious attempt by contemporaries to meet the growing demands of society and to find practical solutions to the social religious and political problems which beset it the volume consists of four sections part i focuses on both the ideas and other considerations which guided men as they sought good government and on the practical development of representation part ii deals with aspects of social and economic development at a time of change and expansion part iii discusses the importance of the life of the spirit religion education and the arts moving from the general to the particular part iv concerns itself with the history of the countries of europe emphasis being placed on the growth of the nation states of the early modern world

the musical social and political history of the renowned st thomas school and church in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries the cantors of the st thomas school and church in leipzig could be counted among the most significant german composers of their times but what attracted these artists from seth calvisius to j s bach to johann adam hiller to the music school and choir and inspired them to explore new repertoire of the highest standing and how did the cantors influence the musical profile of the school a profile that often became a bone of contention between school and city hall the success of the st thomas school was not a foregone conclusion its history is replete with challenges and setbacks as well as triumphs the school was caught between the conflicting interests of enthusiastic mayors and townspeople who wanted to showcase the city s musical culture and opposing parties including jealous rectors and elitist sponsors who argued for the traditional subordination of the cantorate to the school system drawing on many new recently discovered sources michael maul explores the phenomenon of the st thomas school he shows how cantors local luminaries and municipal politicians overcame the school s detractors to make it a remarkable success with a world famous choir illuminating the social and political history of the cantorate and the musical life of an important german city the book will be of interest to scholars of baroque music and j s bach cultural historians choral directors and musicologists and performers studying historical performance practice michael maul is senior scholar at the bach archiv leipzig and lecturer in musicology at the universities of leipzig halle he is also the artistic director of the annual leipzig bach festival this volume intends to fill the gap in the grammaticalization studies setting as its goal the systematic description of grammaticalization processes in genealogically and structurally diverse languages to address the problem of the limitations of the secondary sources for grammaticalization studies the editors rely on sketches of grammaticalization phenomena from experts in individual languages guided by a typological questionnaire
